What was the thought process behind the SHIB GOLD smart contract? Why this contract over any other?

This contract has been tested for more than a year under varying market conditions. Differing sizes of liquidity were also examined to determine the best ratio to maintain a strong chart and strong reversals when necessary. We believe renouncing a contract is renouncing an obligation that developers have to their investors and community.

Is your team renouncing ownership? Explain why or why not, and how it would be beneficial.

We will not be renouncing the contract as there might be a need to edit/change any of the features of the contract and also due to possible further utility implementations.

Does your team have experience within the DeFi environment? Are you prepared to run this project diligently?

The team has worked on multiple million-dollar market cap projects before and we believe that we have what it takes to get this off the ground and bring it to another level.

Please explain your team's choices in distributing SHIB GOLD upon launch and how you believe it will be beneficial to the project.

SHIB GOLD was a stealth launch, we did not airdrop holders as we believe transparency is key.
